

Make the Switch to Libby Now

Leasa Sieve, Reference Librarian

Are you still using the original Overdrive app to borrow ebooks and audiobooks? Now is the time to switch to the Libby app. The Overdrive app is being discontinued in the near future, so you will need to switch to the Libby app to continue reading or listening to library books on your devices.

Switching to Libby is easy!

- Download the Libby, by Overdrive app. If you have an iPhone and iPad, you will find it in the "App Store." If you have an Android smartphone or tablet, search in the "Play Store."
- Open the Libby app, search for your library, and sign in with your library card number and password. If you don't remember your password, give us a call (359-8331) and we can help you reset it.
- If you already have things downloaded in Overdrive, don't worry, they will all transfer over and show up on your bookshelf in the new Libby app.
- Search for books by clicking on the magnifying glass along the bottom of your screen. You can browse for something interesting, or set up preferences such as limiting your results to just ebooks or audiobooks, or titles that are "available now" if you are looking for something right away. Once you find something you want to check out, click on "borrow" and it will automatically download to your shelf and you will be ready to start reading or listening anywhere. Titles download easier over wifi than data, and just like Overdrive, once downloaded no internet is needed.
- The Libby app has some really nice features. A feature that I like is "deliver later." When a hold is ready for you to borrow, you will get a notification, but if you don't have time to read it right now, you can choose to have it delivered at a later date. Use the slider to choose a "deliver after" date. You will then get the item sometime after that date. You keep your position at the top of the hold list, you are letting the next person have it and you will get it when it is returned.

The Libby app is very user friendly and easy to use. Make the switch today! Please let us know if you have any questions or need help getting started with Libby, we are happy to help. Stop in or give us a call at 359-8331.
