

Movie Star Memoirs
Leasa Sieve, Reference Librarian

I think there is always a fascination with the rich and famous. They have it all, don't they? Read all about your favorite stars in these new books that have just arrived (or soon will) here at the library.

Hedy Lamarr has been called the "most beautiful girl in the world." Find out why in Glamour and Style: The Beauty of Hedy Lamarr by Stephen Michael Shearer. It is full of never before published photos and stories about her extraordinary career.

Truly, Madly: Vivien Leigh, Laurence Olivier and the Romance of the Century by Stephen Galloway details their stormy, tempestuous marriage which was defined by Vivien Leigh's undiagnosed mental illness.

Viola Davis' Finding Me: A Memoir is not to be missed! It is an Oprah's Book Club Pick, a Harper's Bazaar Best Book of 2022, a Parade Most Anticipated Book and a Marie Claire Most Anticipated Book. So what are you waiting for? Add your name to the holds list today.

I love the cover of Hello Molly: A Memoir by Molly Shannon. It exudes joyfulness and energy, and the red dress just adds to the vibe. You will remember Molly from her years on Saturday Night Live during the late 90's, but she has a whole lot more to say about her life.

What comes to mind when you think of Ron and Clint Howard? I picture a little boy with a fishing pole over his shoulder headed to a fishing hole (Ron/Andy Griffith Show), and the smiling kid with the black bear for a pet (Clint/Gentle Ben). I'm probably dating myself with that one, but if you remember the Howard boys from back when, you will want to read The Boys: A Memoir of Hollywood and Family by Ron Howard & Clint Howard to see what they have both been up to since they became child stars.

The following books haven't officially arrived at the library yet, but the titles are in the catalog so you can put a hold on them now.

Out of the Corner: A Memoir by Jennifer Grey

Back to the Prairie: A Home Remade, A Life Rediscovered by Melissa Gilbert
