

Library Card Art Design Contest Winners
Assistant Library Director, Meggin Kitterman

The New Ulm Public Library (NUPL) art contest to select three new library card designs has ended. The deadline to submit artwork was June 1. Online and in-person public voting began the week of June 17 and three winners have been selected by the public. What a hard decision and what a close contest! I am so glad I did not have to decide on the winning entries because I love them all. We received fantastic entries, all worthy of making it to the finals. All art is on display in the library. Look for the new limited-edition library cards late July 2024. Kudos and heartfelt thanks to all participants!

Here is a list of the winners* and finalists:
